

MAGNOLIA FEDERAL CREDIT UNION'S METZGER INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

Biloxi, Miss. (5/17/18) - - Magnolia Federal Credit Union Supervisory Committee Chairman Robert Metzger has been inducted into the Mississippi Credit Union Hall of Fame. Created in 1993, the Mississippi Credit Union Hall of Fame is the state's highest credit union honor, recognizing individuals that have devoted their life to the philosophy and success of credit unions at the local, state or national level.

Robert Metzger began his service to credit unions in 1974 with CUNA Mutual Group, a national insurance company. He was a field consultant with the company for thirty-five years assisting Mississippi credit unions.

A believer that knowledge and understanding are empowering, as a field consultant, Bob was known for his caring and sincere nature and his willingness to devote whatever time & effort was necessary into fully explaining answers to credit union's questions.

After retiring from CUNA Mutual Group, Bob was elected to Magnolia Federal Credit Union's Supervisory Committee and has served as chairman of that committee since 2014.

The credit union's auditor said, "The role of the supervisory committee cannot be underestimated. The individuals serving in those roles are the bridge between the board and management, and the regulators and auditors. Throughout the years, we have witnessed Bob leverage his years and depth of service in the credit union industry. He has devoted his personal energies, resources and leadership qualities in ways of tremendous benefit to Magnolia Federal Credit Union and to everyone associated with the credit union."
